

Have you been affected by the recent floods?

The American Red Cross in Connecticut will host two Recovery Centers for all Connecticut residents impacted by recent flooding. Red Cross recovery workers will be available to assist eligible residents, and they will be joined by community and state partners. No appointment necessary, walk-ins are welcome.

Wednesday, September 4, 2024

2 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Southbury Senior Center

561 Main Street South, Southbury, CT

Thursday, September 5, 2024

2 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Naugatuck YMCA

284 Church Street, Naugatuck, CT

Individuals unable to visit the recovery center are encouraged to schedule an appointment with the Red Cross by calling 1-877-287-3327. This phone number is available 24 hours a day.

RED CROSS IMPACT In the aftermath of severe weather that caused severe flooding across parts of Connecticut, Red Cross volunteers continue to bring comfort and support to their neighbors.

Since August 18, the Red Cross has provided support to impacted communities; providing 3100 meals and snacks, delivered emergency supplies to 220 families, including clean-up kits and other supplies, have been distributed to people in need. To date, these relief operations have been supported by more than 70 trained Red Cross disaster workers.